

Project First-Gen

A launchpad for future leaders in finance

At Wells Fargo, we believe that education is the cornerstone of opportunity. That's why we are proud to share Project First-Gen: CIB — a transformative opportunity brought to you by Wells Fargo Corporate & Investment Banking (CIB), in partnership with Wells Fargo Early Careers. This program is designed to educate, develop, and inspire the next generation of change-makers and leaders in finance.

Project First-Gen is a five-week virtual experience tailored for college sophomores, or any student interested in finance. Dive deep and explore the key sectors that define CIB products and services: Investment and Corporate Banking, Markets, and Commercial Real Estate.

What you'll get:

Coffee chats and business sessions

Program participants will kick off the program with an introductory session, engage in coffee chats with our bankers, and attend business sessions led by key CIB leaders.

Insights

Gain exposure to global capital markets, credit analysis and lending, deal execution, sales and trading, fixed income securities, client engagement, and more.

Upcoming career opportunities

Learn about upcoming openings from Wells Fargo Early Careers, including our 2027 Summer Analyst (Intern) Program.

How it works:

- Kick-off session: The program will begin with a virtual session on Wednesday, October 22. Attendance is mandatory for this session.
- Coffee chat and interest rankings: Meet with select bankers across Banking, Markets, and Commercial Real Estate to learn about their experience and lines of business. Following completion of the coffee chats, program participants will submit interest preferences. Placement notification will be shared in early November.
- Business sessions: Attend dedicated business sessions over a five-week period based on interest preferences and take a deep dive into Investment Banking, Markets, and Commercial Real Estate with key leaders.
